Types of Searches
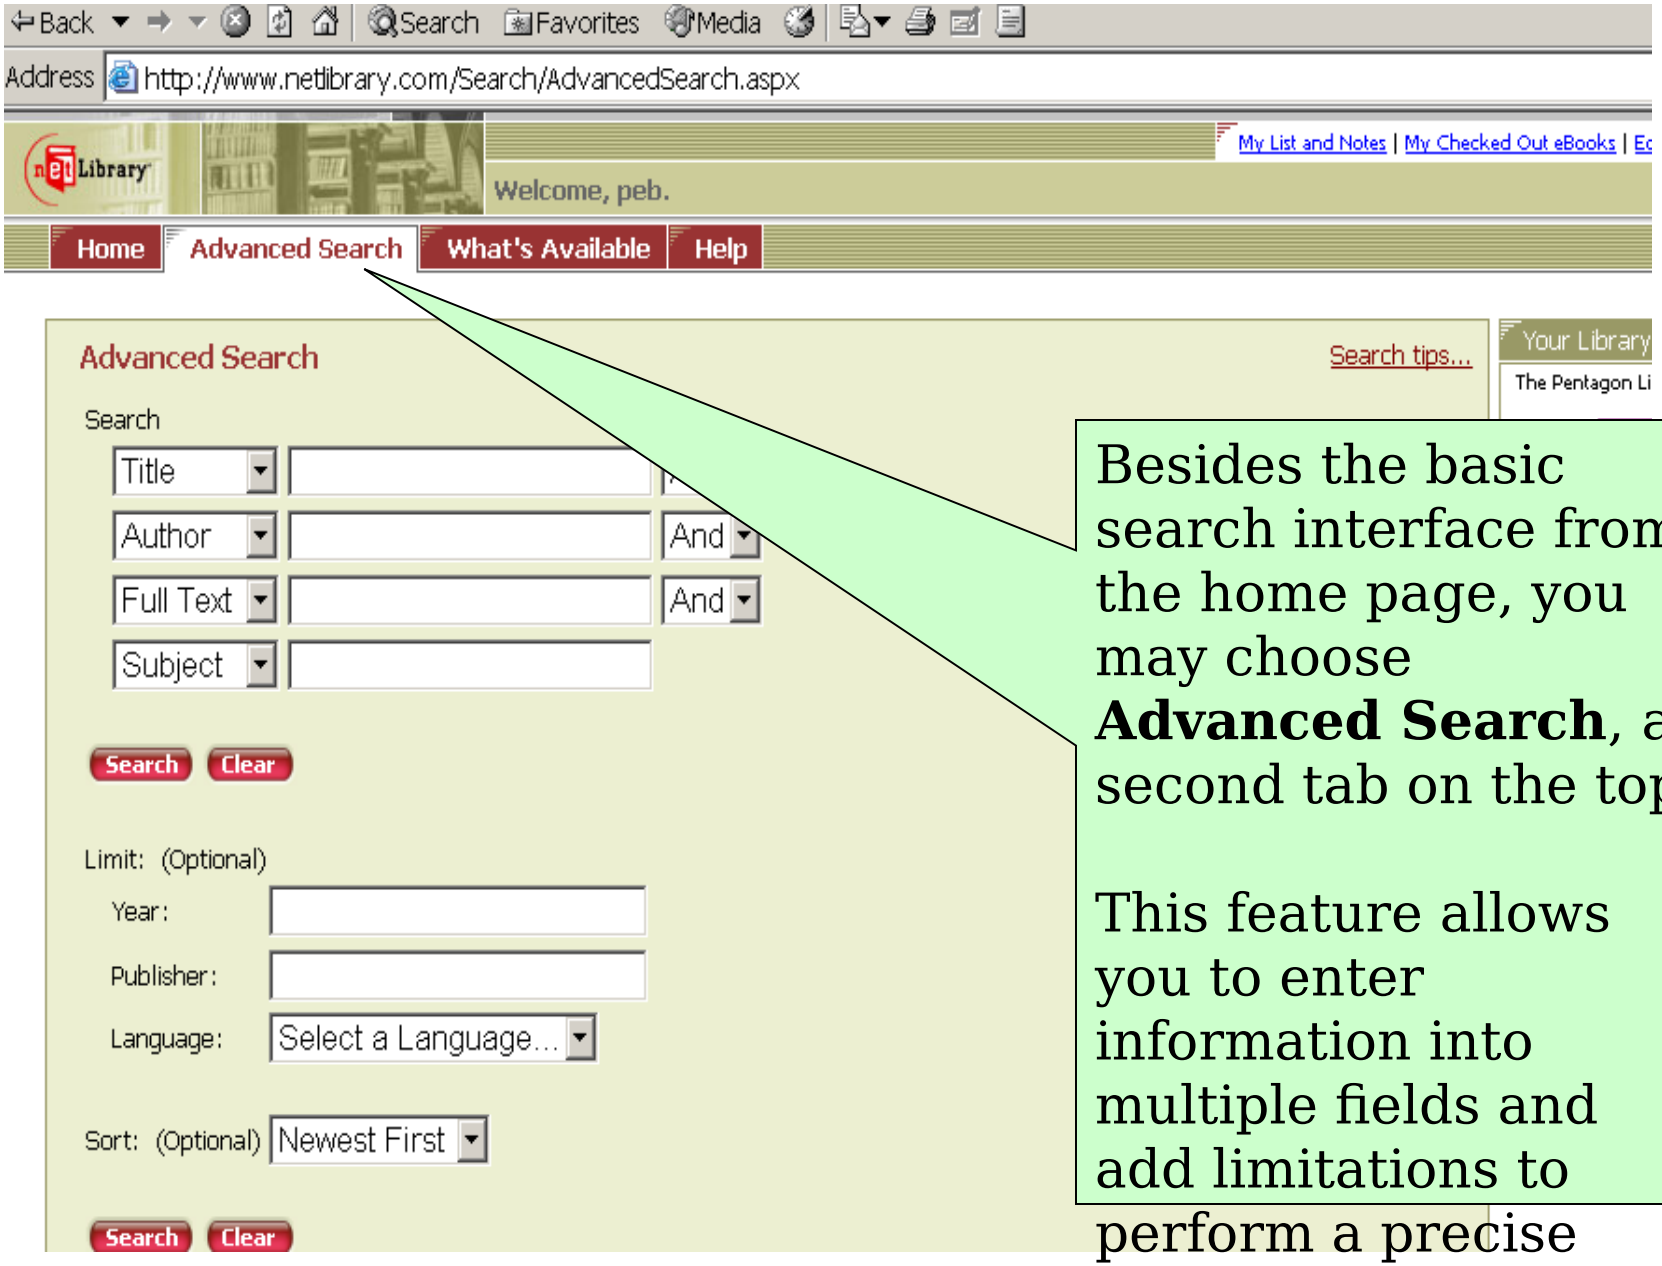
Basic Search lets you quickly perform a search by entering terms and selecting a single search field. You may choose to search for your terms in the Keyword, Title, Author, or Full Text fields. Basic Search is prominently featured on the home page and is also available on the right side of every non-search page.
Advanced Search lets you construct more complicated searches using multiple fields (Title, Author, Full Text, Subject, ISBN), Boolean operators (and, or, not), and limits (year, publisher, language,



Besides the basic search interface from the home page, you may choose Advanced Search, a second tab on the top.

This feature allows you to enter information into multiple fields and add limitations to perform a precise search.
